

GENDER AND EQUALITY

BY: Pamela Lulama Mavaleliso

Gone are the days to stay silent

Gone are the hours of abusive violence

Men and women let's talk one language

Ladies and gentlemen, let's talk one language.

No man's place is in the garden

No woman's place is in the kitchen

The fact that a man washes dishes does not change his manhood

The fact that women work in the field never changed them into men

Males like to undermine female views

Yet females are good managers of the house

Women like to think they can manage everything

But forgetting that men are good family protectors

Men demand more respect but cannot plough it back

Women claim to have more strength but are given no space to act

Most men panic when the women are given the floor to speak

But demand to be listened to when it is their turn.

Treat each other with dignity

Treat each other fair and equally

We are all the same

We need to value and understand that.
